

Collisions

- Any object that you don't want to walk / fall through needs a collision
- Collisions can be applied at import, or manually applied later
- You can apply various different types of collisions, some simple some complicated – organic furniture, for example, might need some more complicated collision objects
- You can apply multiple collisions to each object
- You can also scale them, move them, rotate them, etc.